1. Approximately 5,000 students are attending the Naval Personnel Training School at Mawei (119-26, 25-59); they are organized into two regiments. The chief training officer at the school is a Soviet; CH'EN Shao-kuan, former Nationalist Navy Minister, lectures for four hours a week on "Life in the Navy".
2. The Hsich Ho Hospital in Foochow has been commandeered for military use, and civilians are no longer permitted to go there for treatment.
3. Sixteen rows of barracks, enough to house one division, have been erected at Yushan (玉山), Foochow, and anti-aircraft guns are nearby.
